

National Lotteries Commission

The National Lotteries Commission is one of the most well-known sources of funding and organisational assistance in South Africa, yet many do not know how they operate or how to utilize their services.

You can find out more and start your application process by visiting their official website at: <http://www.nlcsa.org.za/>

We hope you find the information resources to assist you in your mission.

Yours in Sport
SASAFF National Management Committee